

Project

The core of the project work was formed by two workshops and seven retreats of the project team. While taking into account scientific knowledge in the field of health economics, the process should reflect both the basic normative and institutional conditions and also the Swiss health targets and the documented social preferences of the Swiss population. Furthermore, where applicable, attention should also be paid to the further development of the methodology, the basic features of which should be outlined.